"SEC. 2. The tax provided for herein shall be apportioned and collected as other taxes for county purposes. Said tax shall not exceed five per cent of the general fund for any one year unless the same shall have been submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of such county."

Communicable Diseases of Animals—Control of. (Act April 21, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Section 7 of act 182 of the Public Acts of 1885, entitled "An act to provide for the appointment of a State live stock sanitary commission and a State veterinarian and to prescribe their powers and duties and to prevent and suppress contagious and infectious diseases among live stock of the State," the same being section 5633 of the Compiled Laws of 1897, as amended by act 172 of the Public Acts of 1909, is hereby amended, and a new section is added to said act to stand as section 29 thereof, the said amended and added sections to read as follows:

"SEC. 7. The commission, or any member thereof, to whom the existence of any infectious or contagious disease of domestic animals is reported, shall forthwith proceed to the place where such domestic animal or animals are and examine the same, and if in his or their opinion any infectious or contagious disease does exist he or they are authorized to call upon the State veterinarian or other competent and skilled veterinarians to proceed to the place where said contagious or infectious disease is said to exist and examine said animal or animals, and report his or their finding to the said commission, which then shall prescribe such rules and regulations as in its judgment the exigencies of the case may require for the effectual suppression and eradication of the disease, and for that purpose the said commission may list and describe the domestic animals affected with such disease and those which have been exposed thereto and included within the infected district or premises so defined and quarantined, with such reasonable certainty as would lead to their identification, and no domestic animal liable to become infected with the disease or capable of communicating the same shall be permitted to enter or leave the district, premises, or ground so quarantined, except by the authority of the commission. The said commission shall also from time to time give and enforce such directions and prescribe such rules and regulations as to separating, mode of handling, treating, feeding, and caring for such diseased and exposed animals as it shall deem necessary to prevent the two classes of animals from coming in contact with each other, and perfectly isolate them from all other domestic animals which have not been exposed thereto and which are susceptible of becoming infected with the disease, and the said commission and veterinarian are hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon any grounds or premises to carry out the provisions of this act.

"When in the opinion of the commission it shall be necessary to prevent the further spread of any contagious or infectious disease among the live stock of the State, to
